Changes

This word is usually associated with a notable difference in a tangible object. Changes can be seen every day; change in weather, season, environment, time, fashion, or even the simple changing of a channel on the television. Change. Yet there are other types of change. They are the hidden changes, the emotional changes that occur within a person as that person experiences life. Although they are not seen, these changes can be just as important if not more important than the outward changes. Changes. The students at Ludlow High School have experienced this type of change. Not only have they learned new material, but they have also formed new ideas as to how to apply this material to their lives. Knowledge is nothing if it is never used.

Change. As these four years go by, each student must evaluate and re-evaluate different aspects of his or her life. The importance of work, school, family, and friends must be placed in the proper perspective and each must have its own place and value. Discovery of how these things fit into one's own life and personality is what everyone hopes to achieve at some point in his or her life. This is what life is all about. Change.

The Constitution Course

A special honors course on the origins and meaning of the United States Constitution was successfully completed in the 1986-87 school year by eight scholars: Nicole Abair, Terri Boyden, Angela Casagrande, Lisa Goncalves, Tina Ouimette, Linda Panek, Mario Perreira, and Michelle Robbins. The course was part of the celebration in honor of the bicentennial of our Constitution. The course, taught by Mr.

Leonard Charest, social studies department chairman and American government teacher, consisted of sixteen weeks of study and discussion based on "the Framing of the Constitution" by Max Farrand and the Constitution itself including the twenty-six amendments. Each student was presented with a Certificate of Merit to be placed in his or her official school record and to be sent along with transcripts to colleges.

A Whirlwind of Culture

This year we were pleased to have not one but two exchange students. Maristela Maalouli came from Sao Paulo, Brazil through A.I.S.E. and Beat Gipp from Bern, Switzerland through Y.F.U. They came to learn a new culture, language, and the fascinating life of the American teenager. Most of all when they return home they will have learned a lot about themselves.

As was expected, it was difficult for both of the exchange students to adjust to the routine life of Ludlow High School. Now having friends and being active in school life, everything is second nature.

Of course there are differences.

When they were asked what was the hardest to adjust to, Beat said, "the slow paced life of Ludlow compared to the city that I am used to." Maristella seems to think that the language is difficult for her to understand.

The exchange experience has had a significant effect on Maristela and Beat. They have grown mature, and gained an understanding of American life.

Beat and Maristela will go back to their respective countries this summer and will have many stories to tell their family and friends at home, but we will always remember them and their special touch that made our senior year so meaningful.

An Eventful Year

Mrs. Suzanne Kelley is an extremely active woman in her community. She has been a member of the English department at Ludlow High School now for several years. She is also the sole advisor of the prestigious Pro Merito Society. Another one of Mrs. Kelley's responsibilities is advising, The Cub, the school newspaper. For the last two years, she has been appointed by the school committee to be acting assistant principal in the absence of Mr. Andreis. She has been the interim administrator and has taken over the disciplinary measures needed in the school. In addition to her role as assistant principal, Mrs. Kelley is president of the Ludlow Teachers Association and is a practicing lawyer during her free time.

A Difficult Situation

On August 1, 1987, Mr. Eaton, a teacher here at Ludlow High School, was very lucky. On that day, he received an organ transplant. It must have been a joyous day, but little did he know that soon his dream of living a life without having to go to the clinic 3 days a week for dialysis would be shattered.

Mr. Eaton suffered from what is scientifically called "in-stage renal failure". We know it as a kidney problem. He returned home a few days after his operation, but on August 28, his newly transplanted kidney was removed. His body had rejected it.

This was not the end of what seemed to be "bad luck", Mr. Eaton then went back for three more operations because of an infection. In all, he spent from August until Thanksgiving in and out of the hospital, and he is glad to be back.

Mr. Eaton says that he will go back on the organ transplant list as a recipient as soon as he fully recovers. He also wanted people to know that they always have the option to be an organ donor, and that there is even a spot on their license for that. Along with that he stated, "It is a very generous and unselfish thing to do."

A French Exchange

Mr. James Martin was one of 15 extremely bright and talented exchange teachers chosen to go to France for a full year. Out of 175 Americans, only 15 were chosen to go to France. Likewise, 15 French teachers were chosen to come to the United States.

While in France, Mr. Martin taught English in the equivalent of 10, 11, and 12 grades at Lycée Technique Guy Mollet. Unlike in America, the high school teachers teach like professors. Mr. Martin was only required to work 3 and a half days a week. There are also no extra duties for teachers like detention, etc.

The only thing that made it difficult was the size of the classes; they were as big as 35 to 40 students. Mr. Martin had a total of 6 different classes. The preparation was very involved, but the other teachers were extremely nice and very helpful.

The biggest role that Mr. Martin had, however, was that of representative to the United States. It was a once in a life time opportunity that gave him the first hand chance to experience the French culture and to make many friends overseas. Much of his free time was spent travelling to Holland, England, Germany, Belgium, Italy, French Riviera, Spain. He also visited Paris a few times a month. Being his first time living in Europe, when asked if he would ever do it again, he remarked, "Yes, but the next time I am going to visit friends, not to be an American on vacation."

Dedication Plus

About four or five times each year, the Ludlow High School auditorium is filled with spectators anxiously waiting to enjoy a play put on by the DRAMA Department, headed by Mr. Howard A. Burrage. Yet, little thought is given to all the time, effort, and energy needed to put on a successful play. Whether it is DRACULA, A STREETCAR NAMED DESIRE, GREASE, THE MIRACLE WORKER, CHINAMEN, ARSENIC AND OLD LACE, or any number of the many one-act plays put on by the DRAMA students, the time commitment of Mr. Burrage and the students is immense. During preparations for a play, the students in DRAMA put in approximately 30 hours a week outside of the classroom. And Mr. Burrage puts in at least three times that. The pre-rehearsal, actual rehearsal, and post-rehearsal schedules demand a lot of time and energy from everyone involved in each production. And the thanks? For the students, it is the curtain call and the feeling of having created something, of having moved something from the page to the stage. And for Mr. Burrage, the thanks is the growing dedication of the DRAMA students in their many endeavors. Sure, it is a lot of hard work, but according to Mr. Burrage, there is no feeling like opening night of a production. Involving students in DRAMA either as participants or as spectators is a daily job and commitment that Mr. Burrage truly enjoys. He would not want it any other way.

A Fond Farewell

On November 6, 1987 we said goodbye to Miss Szczygiel. Why? Because, "It's time to quit," she said. Her duties as a school secretary were just about, "anything and everything." She would lend a pencil here, a pen there, or call someone on the intercom for a teacher. She was indeed helpful to each and everyone of us who ever came in contact with her.

She was able to continue working for so long because she is in such good shape. Since she was 70 years old she has had to go to a doctor to keep working and get approval of her physical condition. The doctor would or wouldn't consider her capable of continuing to work by the standards set by school policy. She stated, "It was easy. I was renewed three times."

Even though she won't be working anymore, she won't be sitting at home becoming a soap opera fanatic. She'll be as busy as ever. She has always been involved with organizations such as the Polish Cultural Club, the Massachusetts Federation of Polish Women, and the Polish Women's Citizens Club in Ludlow. To add to that she fills in for the night school teachers at L.H.S.

Miss Szczygiel has been in this school since the day after her graduation from Ludlow High and there is no doubt that she will be missed by the teachers who have been with her throughout her glorious years here. There is certainly no one who could ever fill her place.

Changes in sports

On The Gridiron

The Ludlow High School varsity football team started off a good season with captains Mike Bragga, Marty Maziarz, and Jim Monette. The Lions final record was 3-7. Senior Steve Vigneault was this years starting quarterback. He helped the team a great deal by throwing over one thousand yards and completing seven touchdown passes during the season. Another strong point in the Lion offense was Bo Pszeniczny. He had four touchdowns in the Game against Westside which led to a 42-0 victory for Ludlow. Bo tied for the league scoring title with 54 points! Mike Bragga, Dan Casagrande, and Bo Pszeniczny were given the honor of being named all league players. Other seniors who showed outstanding performances were Bill Ayers, Mike Breault, Dan Casagrande, Mike Dziura, Bob Kulig, and Jerry McBride. These players' determination and dedication to the Ludlow Lions will be missed greatly. Honorable mention also goes to Steve Potorski and Jim Robert. Also to be commended is the freshman team for their first undefeated season in the history of Ludlow High.

Getting Our Kicks

"8⁷" was an outstanding year for the Ludlow soccer team with a final record of 15-1-3. Lion fans seem to agree that they could not have asked for more suspense and excitement. The fancy footwork and stamina of these players kept the Lion spirit strong. The boys learned quickly that the way to win was teamwork. Once they united the magic began and Ludlow rose to the top. Ludlow played West Springfield for a 2-0 victory. They hung tough even though players were injured. The team played well in all its games sending it straight to the top and the Western Mass. Finals.

Ludlow played its toughest game of the season in the Western Mass. finals. They played Cathedral in the longest running game Ludlow has ever seen. Their 1-1 tie resulted in six overtimes and two rounds of penalty shots. The game ended with a 2-1 victory for Cathedral. Ludlow gave a fine performance, and never gave up. A fine season was played by all with special credit going to captains Tim Lussier, Mario Pereira, and Ray Santos who made All-Western Massachusetts Boys Soccer First Team.

Playing for Kicks

The 1987 Lady Lions soccer team had yet another successful season. They began strong, winning their first three games. This strength was due to the six returning seniors, four of which were captains. Leading the Lady Lions were Chrissy Andreis, Marie Gaudreau, Michelle Gamache, and Stephanie Mercier. Terrific leadership and enthusiasm was provided by these four seniors who have contributed to the varsity team for four years.

Head coach, Phil Dalessio, led the Lady Lions through their 10-6-1 season. He continued his tradition of being a leader, supporter, and valued coach. He was joined in his tasks by his assistant, Brett Banker, who proved his outstanding talent in assisting Coach Delessio. These men joined together for the first time to lead the Lady Lions through a fine season.

The team had many obstacles to overcome throughout the season. Numerous injuries took their toll on a good portion of the starters. The Lion's bench provided great depth to replace the injured starters. With a strong team effort, the Lions overcame their setbacks and proved that they couldn't be stopped. The Lady Lions were the only team to beat the undefeated first place team. They showed their strong ability as a team to unite and break through with a victory against a tough team.

Ending the season on a high note, three of the girls were recognized for an outstanding season. Chrissy Andreis and Marie Gaudreau were selected for the All Western Mass Soccer Team and Stephanie Mercier was given honorable mention. With great confidence we feel that there will be many members of next year's team chosen as well. Good luck to the 1988 Lady Lions soccer team and Coach Dalessio.

On The Move!

The 1987 cross country team had a hard fought season this year. Under the guidance of Coach Clancy the boys pulled two wins for the season. The girls also did well considering this is only the second year a girls team has existed. One reason for this is that until recently cross country has been considered new to the Ludlow sports scene. Now it is finally gaining the support and recognition it deserves. For example, junior Amy Snyder was named to the Western Mass. Girls Valley All League Cross Country Team. But the one meet that stands out in everyone's mind was Western Mass. The course was very difficult and the cold weather just made things worse.

Seniors Tom Costa, Dan DePonte, Scott Henault, Dean Manuell, and Bill Moro will be greatly missed. With strong underclassmen participation the future for this Ludlow team still looks bright.

On the Mats

The 1987-88 wrestling team will be remembered for its many victories. With Don Kalish coaching for the second year, we had the most successful season in Ludlow history. Under the leadership of senior tri-captains Dan DePonte, Larry Abeid, and David Kornacki, the team came back with a winning record of 8-7-1. Captain David Kornacki set a new school record for the quickest pin. He defeated his opponent from Westside in eight seconds. David also placed first in the Westside Tournament and second in the Western Mass. Wrestling Finals. Many of the Lion wrestlers had successful seasons, but junior Bill Bouyea took his season in the distance. He came in first in his weight class of the Westside Tournament and second in the Agawan Christmas Tournament. The Ludlow Lion wrestling team is expected to have a promising season next year even with the loss of the seniors.

Skiing is a great winter sport; however when you ski as a member of the LHS varsity ski team after school, in rain, sleet or snow at Berkshire East in Charlemount, you have to be a dedicated skier. All practices and meets were held at Berkshire East which was an hour's drive from LHS in the school van. When you consider that the team generally did not get back before 8:00 PM you've got to wonder how they made it to school the next day.

This year's team was led by Chris Lavoie with Beat Gipp, our exchange student from Switzerland, showing his expertise at every meet. Under the guidance of Coach Scott Tierney, the Lions finished third over-all in their division for the year.

Neverending Pride

The Lions Varsity hockey team played a remarkable season as they finished the year with a record of 12-5-2.

The Lions finished the overall season with a tie for second place in the Fay Wright Division. They also earned a birth in the Western Mass. play-offs.

Senior center, Sergio Freitas led the team in points as he was the top goal scorer with 27 goals and 17 assists giving him a total of 44 points. Forward Alan Carr also had a tremendous season earning a total of 34 points. Senior captain Todd Sepiol was also an asset to the Lions with 29 points. A few other top scorers also played well offensively for the Lions. Among them were junior forwards Chris an unlimited amount of credit. This season would not have been possible without them. They did a fantastic job this year. A special thanks goes out to all of them. Congratulations to the varsity Lions for an inspiring season.

Lawler with 22 points and Mike DiSanti with 21 points. Sophomore Nick Cocchi and Mike Ne-deau also made important contributions each earning 19 points a piece. Defensively, senior captain Dan Casagrande (14 pts.) and junior Todd LeBlanc (10 pts.) worked spectacularly together fighting off the opposing team, while goalies Justin Iwaniec and Alex Goncalves did a splendid job minding the nets for Ludlow.

The Lions played spectacularly all season long. They never gave up, and they fought until the end. They also earned a special place in the hearts of Ludlow High sports fans.

Reach for the Sky

Ludlow had much to be proud of this winter since the varsity boys' basketball team was the talk of the Western Mass sports' program. They went undefeated for eighteen straight games, playing to a full gym at home and finding unbelievable support at their away games. Their first defeat came at the buzzer when they lost by one point to Smith Academy. The varsity hoopsters ended their regular season with a spectacular 18-3 record and took the Hampshire League title.

This was the first year in high school sports for the 3-point basketball and it was shots such as this that had a significant impact on the score. Our own Bob Tyburski was the first high school player in Western Mass to score a 3-pointer. The high scorer for the season was co-captain Joe Crowley with a 21.5 average per game, while Steve Vigneault was credited with making 24 three point shots during the season. This season has proven to be a most memorable one for first year varsity coach Tom Cebula and the entire team.

Shooting the Hoop

The girls varsity basketball team had a successful season with 10 wins and 8 losses in the competitive BI-COUNTY LEAGUE. This was the first year of the 3-point field goal in high school basketball. Karen Koss, Kathy Melbourne and Chris Davis will be remembered as the first to score from behind the 3-point line.

Junior Cathy Chaput was the Most Improved Player. Point-guard Kim Taylor won the coach's award for her attitude and consistent hard work. Center Chris David (ALL-LEAGUE) led the team in rebounding (156), while Co-Captain Lisa Martin also had a big year (143 rebounds). Co-Captain Marie Gaudreau was the team's M.V.P. leading in assists (43) and steals (95). Co-Captain Kathy Melbourne (ALL-LEAGUE) led the team in scoring with 11.6 p.p.g. and made the Academic ALL-STATE BASKETBALL TEAM. The strong bench play of Darcey Connaughton, Lianne Vautrain and Sally Eusebio contributed greatly to the success of the team. The team's great attitude and effort made this a very enjoyable year for the Lady Lions.

Boys at Bat

The 1988 varsity baseball season rolled off to a slow start, but things picked up as the season went on.

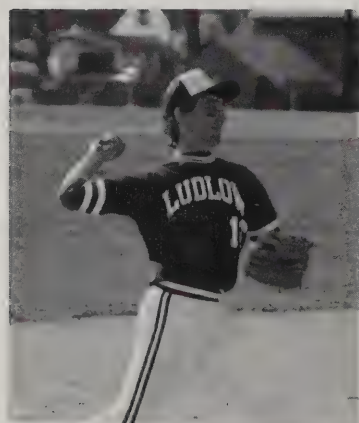

The Lions were fortunate to have a large nucleus of strong veteran players returning this spring. The infield and outfield were the teams main strengths with experienced players once again occupying their positions. Seniors Dan Casagrande and Mike Pariseau handled the left side of the infield playing their respective positions of shortstop and third base. Donn Dominique played solid defense for the Lions at second base while first baseman Steve Vigneault also contributed to a strong infield. Let's not forget another key player catcher Steve Potorski. In the outfield, center fielder Larry Abeid and right fielder Bo Pszeniczny used good teamwork to fight off the opposing offense while senior Bill Ayers and junior Mike Cavallo shared the action in left field.

Offensively, captains Donn Dominique and Dan Casagrande led the Lions' batting. Designated hitter Chris Lawler, Bo Pszeniczny, and Larry Abeid also had solid hits throughout the season.

The pitching staff this season also came through for the Lions with seniors Jim Monette, Keith Leal, and Bill Ayers firing them across the plate.

Congratulations to the Lions and first year coach Mr. Casagrande on a season well played.

Hit and Run

The varsity softball team had a disappointing season as they finished with an overall record of 3 wins and 17 losses.

The Lions had a strong infield consisting of six returning lettermen. Among them were second baseman Chrissy Andreis, shortstop Kathy Melbourne, third baseman Karen Tokarz, catcher Deanna Bator, and rotating pitchers Nicole Forgie and Tanya Bator. Newcomer Chris Davis filled the void at first base while sophomore Natalie Cieplik was recruited to the pitching staff.

The Lions' weakness this season fell in the outfield as most of the players were inexperienced. Veteran Kellie Ayers guarded center field, and senior Sheri Orchulek played a solid left field while several team members shared the action in right field.

Newcomers Angela Casagrande, Kellie Saloio, Diana Rusiecki, Sue Conniff, and Debbie Beebe also had their chances in the spotlight.

Team captains Kathy Melbourne and Chrissy Andreis led the team in batting while Karen Tokarz also came through for the team offensively.

Defensively shortstop Kathy Melbourne had a spectacular season fielding while catcher Deanna Bator defended the plate.

Coach Malek and Coach Lonczak guided the girls through a tough season. Though there weren't many victories the games were close and well played.

The girls worked hard all season long. They never gave up, and they always gave their best. Better luck next season.

Leapin' Lions

This year's track team was probably the best Ludlow High School has ever had. With Mr. Dalessio returning for his second year as head coach, the team already had some experience. His assistant coaches were Mr. Abel and Mr. MacCumber.

There was a great interest in the sport this year, which was shown by the increased number of girls that came out this year. This was the first year the girls had their own team. They showed a lot of talent for their first year and get the experience they will need to be a force in the future.

The boys also had a large number of participants. They came very close to the first winning season in the history of the sport at Ludlow, but had to face some very tough teams without some of their strongest players. They were well represented at the league championships, where the quarter-mile relay team ran to a first place finish. There were also quite a few boys who made the Western Mass. Meet.

With all the returning tracksters, Ludlow should be the team to look out for next year.

Over the Net

The 1988 boys tennis team has had their best season ever. Coach Kenworthy and several Lion members put forth a strong team effort to contribute to a good over all season.

The main line-up consisted of key double players William Reid and Darren Sheer and Tim Lussier while Beat Gipp, Shane Mortimer, and Bill Nicoll came through in the singles' matches. Sophomores Keith Sbriscia, Jeff Robbins, and Junior Steven Duquette also saw some action.

Experience seemed to be the Lion's major weakness while first singles player Beat Gipp and doubles Bill Reid, Darren Sheer, Tim Lussier and Scott Doughty were the key strengths. The team was also fortunate to have two players Tim Lussier and Scott Doughty, who earned individual recognition, for their outstanding play in the doubles. Both were given honorable mention for all Western Mass.

Over all, the girls tennis team had a very good season. The Lady Lions battled to a Western Mass. play-off spot only later to be lost by a missed due date.

The team's weaknesses were inexperience while their will to play was their main strength. The key double mixtures included teammates Lianne Vautrain and Luisa Oliveira along with Isabel Bettencourt and Celia Eusebio. Strong players for the team singles were Juniors Jenn Rokosz and Ana Pires, and Sophomore Kathy Panek. Other contributions were made by Lady Lions' Beth Connery, Sandy Tereso, and Patty Hoepfner.

All in all, Coach Carlin and the Lady Lions' battled a hard fought season to make it the best season ever.

Junior Luisa Oliveira slams one over the net.

Fore!!!

The 1988 golf team was again guided by coach Larry Holdsworth. The team had an overall average season this year.

The team consisted of nine players. Among them were seniors Mark Parson, Bob Carnevale, Steve Cieplik, Dan DePonte, Todd Sepiol, and Bob Kulig. Junior Gary Sedelow, sophomore Mike Nedeau, and freshman Dan Ferrington also played for Ludlow.

The three key players were seniors Mark Parson, Steve Cieplik, and Bob Carnevale. Bob played in all 13 matches while Mark and Steve played in 12.

The LHS Varsity Squad demonstrates superb form.

Cheerleaders Showing Spirit, Pep, and Pride

The Ludlow Varsity Cheerleading Squad was captained by Senior Angela Casagrande with Co-Captains Senior Lisa Goncalves and Junior Carolyn Tierney. The Fall Booster Day was a smashing success with a dynamic dance routine performed by the Varsity, Junior Varsity, and Freshman Squads. All of the classes participate in this first "School spirit" rally with the introduction of team athletes in the up-coming winter sports.

This year's squad was very proud of their strong friendship and comradery which enabled the girls to function as a dedicated unit. The coaches were always helpful to the girls and made them a part of the "team spirit."

The long bus rides in the dead of winter, the freezing cold weather at the football fields, and the anxious moments waiting for the last second to tick off the clock made up the mixed pleasures which the girls look forward to each season. All the girls want to thank the classes for their support and loyalty.

This year the girls celebrated at the end of the school year with a banquet at the Huke Lau. The whole squad was invited up on the stage to give a few cheers for Ludlow High. Our appreciation is extended to Margie Fortier and Brenda Tierney for their support and instruction.

This spring our Coordinator, Mrs. Carole Tierney, was lost to us tragically but we know she would want us to keep our "heads up high" and always continue with spirit and enthusiasm. It is with this thought that we will strive to be the best Ludlow High School Cheerleaders and represent them well.

Serve's Up

On February of 1988, the Volleyball Tournament began at Ludlow High School under the direction of Mr. Dalessio. Twelve girls' teams and sixteen boys', a total of two hundred and fifty eight students participated.

The top girls' team, during the regular season, were the Hoopsters. However, on March 24, Cinzano became the play-off champ. The outstanding female players were seniors Christine Davis and Maristela Maalouli, juniors Ana Pires, Tammy Laird, Karen Alexander and Arice Staeb, and freshman Eli Santos.

The boys' top teams were The Bombers, Fish and Game, and Lou's Gang. Nevertheless, The Bombers proved to be the best team and finally conquered the title of play-off champ. The most powerful male players of the season included seniors Joe Crowley, Joe LaFlamme, Tim Lussier, Paul Lopes and Larry Hitchcock, juniors Dan Fuller and Todd LeBlanc, and sophomore Elio Santos.

On May 2, the Faculty all-stars; Mr. Macombener, Mr. Marini, Mr. Bylicki, Mr. Yando, and Mr. Phelon, (coached by Ms. Stachelek) played both the girl and boy play-off champs. The Faculty managed to beat the girl champs Cinzano, but the boy play-off champs, The Bombers, were able to defeat the Ludlow High School's Faculty all-stars.

The Volleyball Tournament was a rewarding experience for all the participants. Ludlow High School wishes that the Volleyball Tournament will be as successful next year as it was this year.

We've Got Tonight

On Friday, May 13, 1988, the Class of 1989 presented the Ludlow High School Junior-Senior Promenade which was held at Chez-Josef in Agawam. This year's Prom coordinators were Karen Tokarz, Jim Robert, and Jennifer Fiormanti whose extensive planning made "We've Got Tonight" a very memorable evening.

"Breezin'" provided great "sound" entertainment for lots of singing and dancing. The highlight of the evening occurred with the crowning of Susan Manewich as the Junior Prom Princess and Amy Palatino as the Senior Prom Queen. Over 400 students enjoyed this last social event of the year.

Freshman's First Christmas Party

The freshman class Christmas party was held at the Ludlow Country Club on December 19, 1987. The gathering was the class' first high school social event and everyone was determined to have a great time. Approximately 60 people attended to celebrate the upcoming holiday and continue the Christmas spirit.

The guests were treated to a delicious buffet at the Golden Wedge Restaurant. Entertainment was provided by a D.J. who supplied the excitement and sounds of the evening. Dancing and socializing filled the event with fun and laughter, and everyone who attended had a wonderful time. Class president Andrew Gallo and Class advisors Mrs. Cavallo and Mrs. Mancuso were responsible for organizing the successful affair.

Dancing the Night Away

This year the sophomore banquet was held at the Ludlow Elks Club on Friday December eighteenth. The night started off around 6:30 with plenty of social time for finding tables or just talking. Dinner was a buffet provided by Tony and Penny's which the sophomores enjoyed very much followed by cake for dessert. A free soda bar was kept open throughout the night. The rest of the night was spent dancing to top 40 tunes. All in all the sophomores enjoyed celebrating the Christmas spirit together as a class.

Galaxy Sound

The 1987 junior class Christmas party was held at the Homestead Inn in December. The banquet began at 6:00 and it came to a close at about 11:00 P.M. Over one hundred guests attended the class function. Four faculty members, Miss Bacon, Mrs. Sands, Mrs. Dias, and Mrs. Dumais, also joined in an evening of fun filled excitement.

The guests were treated to a delicious buffet of delectable delights. After dinner the group danced to the music of dazzling D.J. Galaxy Sound.

Even though the junior basketball players arrived late, they were not too tired to dance the night away. When 11:00 rolled around you couldn't tear anyone off the dance floor. No one wanted the evening to end. Everyone that attended had a fantastic time.

Junior class president Arice Stabb and class advisor Miss Bacon, Mrs. Sands, and Mrs. Dias all worked very hard to make the evening a successful and memorable event. They did a wonderful job organizing the affair.

Booster Week '88

This year's Booster Week consisted of Clash Day, Hat Day, Hawaiian Day, and Stuffed Animal Day. Each class was responsible for decorating their hallway to depict school spirit. At the end of the week, the Senior Class sponsored a pep rally and dance. The LHS Cheerleaders, led by Angela Casagrande, and co-captains Lisa Goncalves and Carolyn Tierney encouraged the student body to participate in these activities. The fall sports athletes were introduced to the students by their coaches. That evening, the Class of '88 held a bonfire and a splendid dance with music provided by a "Video-disc-jockey." School spirit reached an exciting level by all there in attendance for strong encouragement of our school teams.

The Edge

Shortly after midterms, the student body was given a rare treat. We were visited by a rock group, known as The Edge. They entertained us with a two hour rock concert live in the Ludlow High School Auditorium. We heard a combination of songs and lyrics from a number of big name heavy metal artists. For example, Bon Jovi, White Snake, and Cinderella were just a few. This five member rock group was composed of the following people: Steve Bertrara, lead vocalist; Grant Volz, on the keyboard; Jon Meunnich, on the drums; and Ric Powell and Don Horvagt, on the electric guitars. Because of our overwhelming response to this concert during the school day, they were invited back on January 20, 1988 to do another concert at night. Even though the turnout was not as big at the second concert, everyone there had a rocken good time.

The Edge was not your average rock group. They traveled from school to school across the country to spread their message. Steve explained to us that they were kids, and they knew how rough life could be. He said that some of his friends in the group had problems with drugs and alcohol, but with each others help and their faith in God they overcame these obstacles. Because of this they travel all over the United States giving concerts so that they can tell people that no matter how bad your life may seem don't give up because life is always worth living.

Jon keeps the beat.

Women of the World

This year's National Women's History week was celebrated as usual at Ludlow High school. Many of the surrounding area's professional women took part in Ludlow High's salute to make this week an enjoyable one.

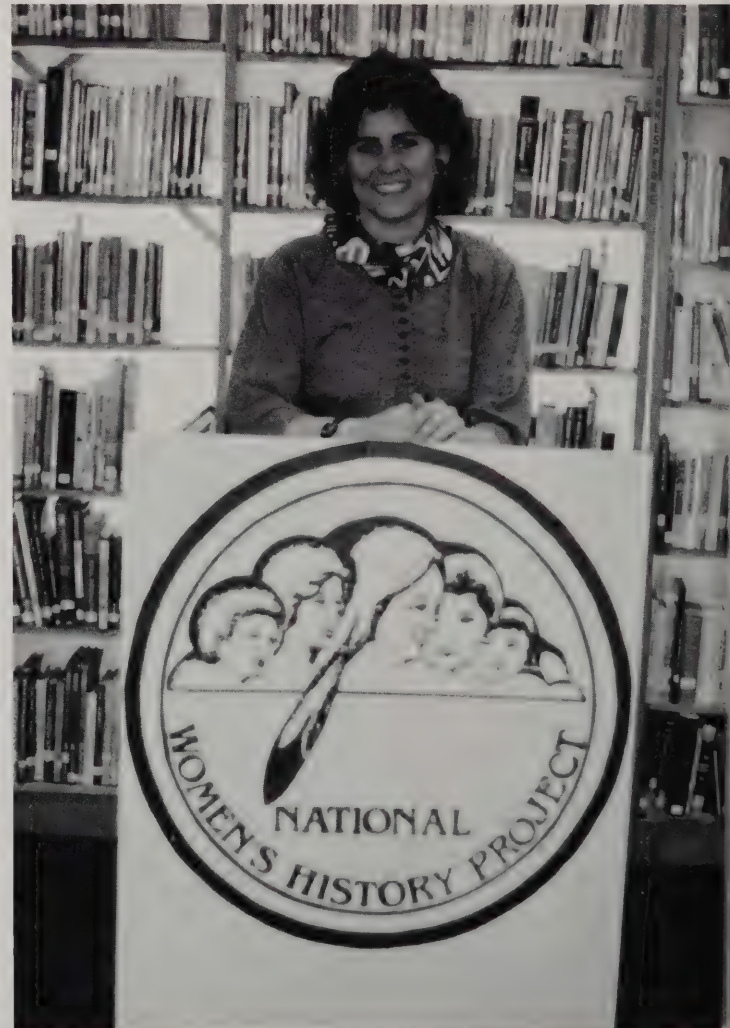

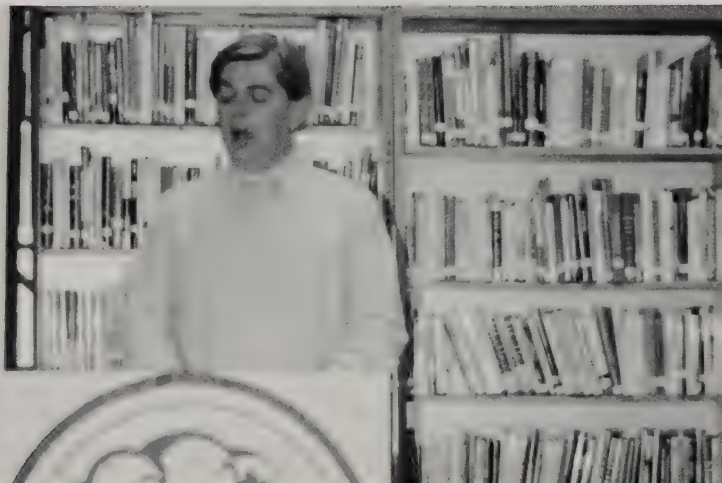

Students were treated to presentations ranging from the arts to law and justice. Professional and successful engineer Lori Hunter of the Digital Corporation talked of her hard work and determination while interested students listened in. Local reporter Amy Landsman from Channel 22 made a witty and enjoyable presentation about the do's and don'ts of broadcasting, and she also addressed the problem of competition in the field. One of the most amazing and inspiring speakers was police chief Linda Hammond of Williamsburg. Chief Hammond talked about the issue of discrimination against women and how the problem is changing. She also talked about overcoming this problem and having the determination to work hard to get where you want to be. Speaker Jill Tylunis was also one of the more interesting guests as she described her job as a mortician. Last but not least, our very own art teacher, Mr. Burns, put together a program about women in art.

The main idea of National Women's History week was for professional women to come into the school and enlighten and encourage students by giving them some background information about various career choices and ideas. Each of the women that appeared at Ludlow High this year stressed the importance of hard work and determination, and each one displayed these traits as well as the miraculous achievements in themselves and in women across the Nation.

Senior Stuff

The Best of Times

On March 25 and 26, the Seniors held the annual show entitled Cool Dudes and Fabulous Babes. By the reaction of the three sold out audiences, it was definitely a great success. Thanks to the long hours of coordinators Tina Ouimette, Paul Dobek, and Larry Garcia the show came off very smoothly.

The senior class began their show with the song "There's No Business Like Show Business" to get the attention of all. The hosts Mario Pereira and Tina Ouimette "glamourously" introduced the varied acts. The audience was also "Razzled-Dazzled" by all the "Dirty Dancing" that was going on. And who can ever forget "The Sheik of Araby" and Mike Pariseau's "walk." The unique talent of the actors were also readily seen in such acts as "Master of the House" and the "Super Heroes' Convention." Dave Kornacki and his coconuts stunned the audience with "There's is Nothing Like a Dame" and "Honey Bun." The night ended with the whole class coming together to sing "The Best of Times." You can be sure director Mr. Martin thought that his time was well spent after the show was finally over.

Seniors Take Florida

Sunday, April 17 was the day the class of '88 started their invasion on Florida. Stopping several times on the way, the three busses filled with one hundred and forty seniors and seven chaperons arrived twenty-six hours later, at our hotel, the Howard Johnson's in downtown Orlando. Muscle cramped and cranky, everyone relaxed by swimming in the hotel's pool. That night we again piled into the busses and headed to the "Medieval Times," a restaurant featuring knights on horseback, jousting, sheer horsemanship, and barbaric dining.

It was hard not to have fun the next day with our choice of either spending the whole day at Magic Kingdom or Epcot Center. On Wednesday we left downtown Orlando and departed for Marineland, Florida where we stayed at the Quality Inn right on the beach. That afternoon was free to lie on the beach or to visit the fabulous dolphin and seal show at Marineland. The trip was slowly coming to an end, but before we left Florida we had a poolside bar-b-que.

Heading home, we cut our trip almost in half by spending the night at the South of the Border, where we had the all night pool party. Arriving back in Ludlow at 11:45 Friday night the senior class of 1988 had an experience that they will never forget.

Honoring the Seniors

Class Day 1988 began with the processional hymn "Pomp and Circumstance" played by the Ludlow High School band under the direction of Cynthia Koch.

Senior class vice president Kristen Condon gave the invocation, and for a new twist in this year's program, senior concert choir members sang the Star Spangled Banner instead of the 1988 graduating class.

The audience was welcomed by class president Michelle Robbins, and shortly after that principal James Cavallo had the honor of presenting the Class of 1988.

Mrs. Helene Gallo extended the annual School Committee Welcome to the Class of 1988 which was followed by two ad-resses. The first address was the Class Day Address presented by Dr. James Tierney, and the second was the State of School Address delivered by Renee LeBrecque.

Next the Class of 1988 was treated to a stroll down memory lane as they reflected back on all of their four years here at Ludlow High School. Christopher Burrage, Paul Dobek, Leslie Borsa, Joseph Crowley, John Riordan, Connie Parker, Kristen Condon, and Renee LeBrecque all took part in reciting the class history.

Salutatorian Kathy Melbourne concluded all of the speeches with the Class Day Oration.

Following the speeches a series of scholarships and awards were presented to various seniors and a few juniors.

Don't Shed a Tear

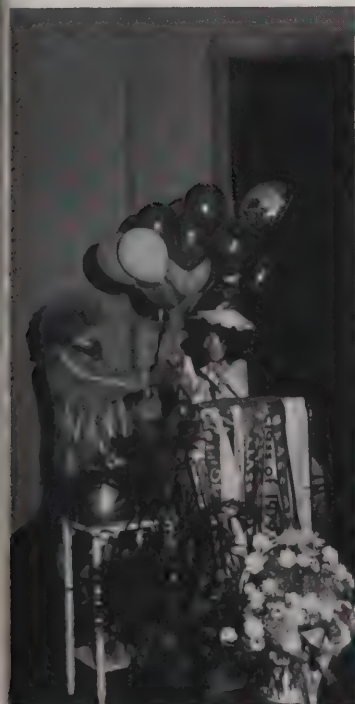

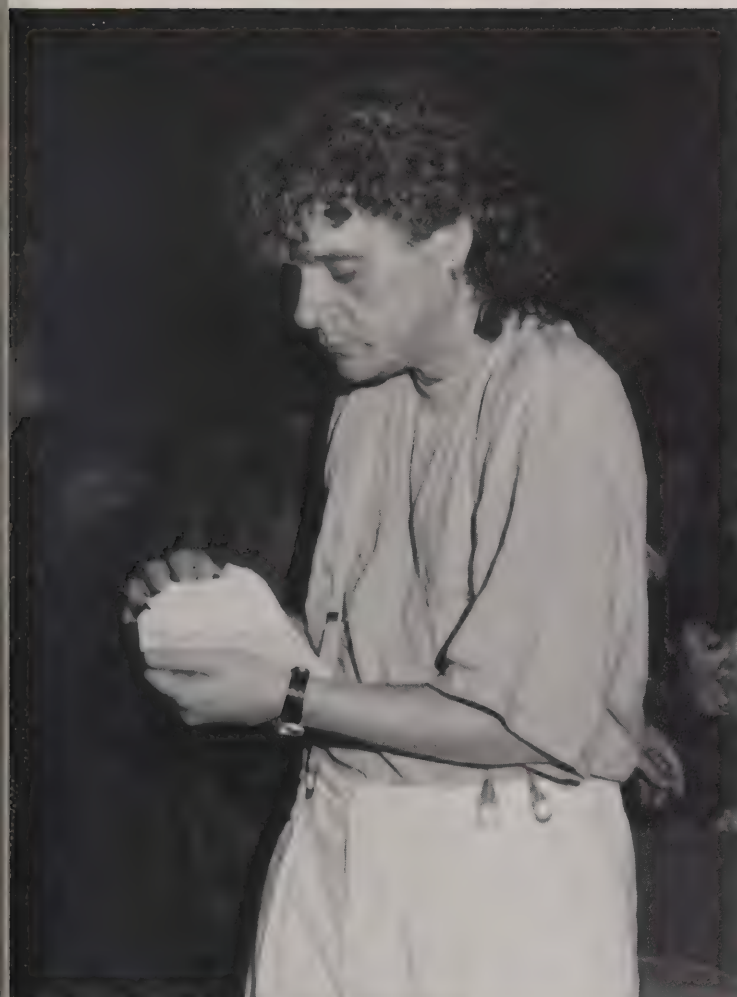

On Wednesday June 1, the juniors treated the seniors to a look at the future. They were taken ahead to their class reunion. What do you know, a trip to Florida. Memories never die. During the skit junior class members honored the seniors by imitating several as known to them, and as they would be remembered. Impersonations included Dan Casagrande, Dave Pietrowski, Kathy Melbourne, Sheri Orchulek, Joe Crowley, and John Riordan. The skit ended with the senior show melody "The Best of Times."

A musical program set the music of "Anything For You" created the mood for heart warming slides of the class of 1988, their parents, and the students' baby pictures.

The final entertainment consisted of a dance number from some junior class members. The ceremony closed with the traditional candle light procession and the releasing of the balloons by the seniors.

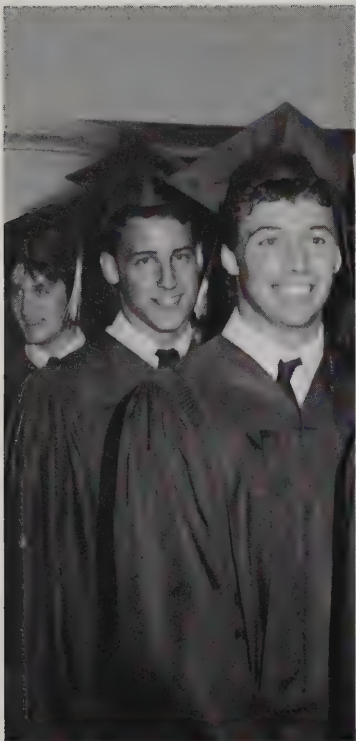

Juniors Ann Pina and Bill Nicoll and advisors Mrs. Mancuso, Mr. Burrage, and Mr. Martin did a tremendous job coordinating the event, while junior class participants also worked hard to make the last day at Ludlow High School a memorable one for the senior class of 1988.

Best wishes from the school committee.

A Final Farewell

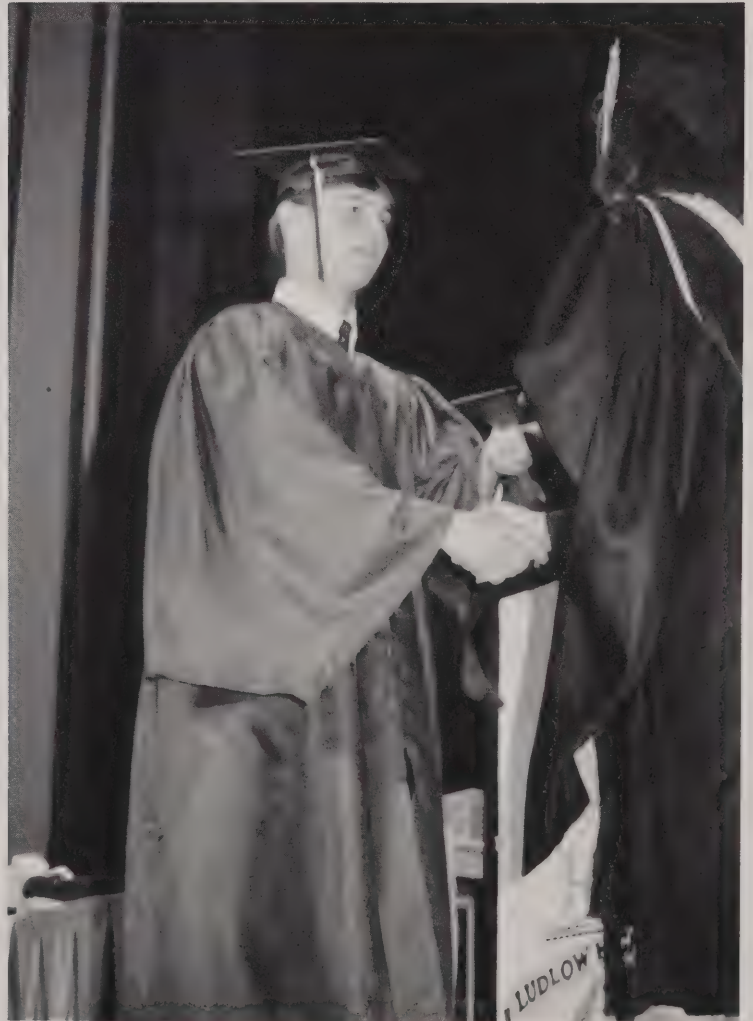

On June 2, 1988 Ludlow High School officially graduated the class of 1988. The ceremony took place at Springfield Symphony Hall at 7:30 P.M. The graduates marched in to the traditional hymn Pomp and Circumstance played by the Ludlow High School band. Father Farlan delivered the invocation. Valedictorian and class president Michelle Robbins addressed the class with two speeches, and Mrs. Helene Gallo of the Ludlow School Committee also took part in this year's ceremony by helping to present the diplomas. After the tassels were moved, the class of '88 then joined together to sing their Alma Mater as they do every year. The ceremony then concluded with the annual prayer The Lord Bless You and Keep You sung by the Ludlow High School concert choir. The graduates then triumphantly processed out of the auditorium to the War March of the Priests. You made it!!

Michelle Robbins addresses her fellow class members.

May I Have the Last Dance.

This year the senior class held their final banquet at the Polish American Citizens' Club. This was to be the last dance the senior class was to have together. For once this rockin' class had enough room on the dance floor for everyone to dance all night. The DJ for the evening was supplied courtesy of the senior Christmas party, for which he never appeared. Despite his past record with the class the DJ proved to be very entertaining. He played a wide variety of music, from the top 40's to oldies and even a few Pink Floyd tunes to get the dance underway.

Awards were given at this time for the class ballot. Lisa Chumura and Paulo Tereso won for best dressed, although Paulo wondered why. The class clowns were easy to pick, Christine Davis and Mike Parisseau. The class athletes were Joe Crowley and Marie Gaudreau. Our class valedictorian Michelle Robbins won 'most likely to succeed' along with our Yale man Mario Pereira. Michelle Robbins also won for teachers' pet with Jim Monnette of course. Teachers' trials were Eric Bennett and Michele LaPointe. The winners for class artist were the designers of the senior lounge Peggy Ouellette and Mario Pereira. The class musicians were David Pietrowski and Ellen Woytych.

Senior Olympics

As part of Senior week activities the Class of 1988 held their annual Senior Olympics.

Despite the cold and rainy weather, that senior spirit was still shining through. The seniors gathered together for their last class activity at Ludlow High School. There was plenty of food and several games planned to make this final event a fun and memorable one for the Class of 1988.

Among the activities was a pie eating contest which turned into a pie fight. There were a number of relay races to start off the fun including an "obstacle" course with oil slick plastic, jello tubs, big wheels, live detours, and the never ending water spray. Some seniors also enjoyed hopping across the finish line in their potato sacks while participating in their senior sack race.

What would a picnic be like without food? Well the graduates didn't have to worry about that as they munched down a feast of American favorites consisting of hamburgers, hot dogs, potato chips, and soda.

Changes

As we walk down these halls into the next phase of our life we will remember only the good times, for even the bad ones become sweet. The loneliness becomes filled as our days at Ludlow High become numbered. We have realized the changes that have occurred and the giant one that faces us. Still we know we are well prepared and we will adapt and survive.

Ron Wisner 'concentrates' on his test.
